Prince George's County Executive Rushern L. Baker, III and State Senator Douglas J. J. Peters endorse Cheryl Landis for School Board District 5.

Cheryl S. Landis knows Prince George's County, where she has lived, worked, worshiped and volunteered for three decades. She knows our schools from the inside; she's worked for Prince George's County Public Schools (PGCPS) for 27 years, partnering with students and families while building a thriving community of business partners for the schools. She knows how important connections are between the school system and local businesses. Ms. Landis currently serves as chairman of the Education/Workforce Development Committee for the Prince George's Chamber of Commerce. As a member of the School Board, she will increase parental engagement and support which she believes are critical in improving academic performance. She will provide keen leadership, bringing together parents, PGCPS staff, and students to support, connect and provide opportunities for ongoing collaboration. Cheryl Landis is uniquely qualified to provide the leadership our schools need and our students deserve.

VOTE TO RETAIN OUR SITTING JUDGES
By Authority of David S. Coasum, Treasurer, Prince Georges Committee to Elect the Sitting Judges

All four current Circuit Court Judges – Herman C. Dawson, Dorothy Michelle Engel, Karen Holliday Mason and Erik H. Nyce – have extensive trial experience in Prince George's County and were appointed by the Governor following an in-depth vetting process that included careful consideration by the Prince George's County and Maryland State Bar Associations. Our four judges are currently serving on the Circuit Court and are the only candidates found fully and professionally qualified by the Prince George's County Trial Court Judicial Nomination Commission, the group established by law to nominate judges.

Judge Herman C. Dawson served Prince George's County in the Office of Law as an Associate County Attorney prior to his appointment to the Circuit Court. He currently serves as the juvenile coordinating judge and oversees the juvenile drug court docket.

Judge Dorothy Michelle Engel during her tenure in the State's Attorney's Office prosecuted complex homicides and violent crimes. Judge Engel served our country in the United States Army Reserve.

Judge Karen Holliday Mason, while serving on the Prince George's County District Court, presided over the District Court drug and mental health court and has devoted her life to helping troubled individuals and families in Prince George's County.

Judge Erik H. Nyce served several years as a judge for the Prince George's County District Court before being appointed to the Circuit Court. He has been widely recognized as providing free legal service to individuals in Prince George's County.
